It is quality and not quantity that has made us such a proud and outstanding class. As classmates, -and as friends, - we go back a long way, and there are many memories. Upon reminiscing, I'm sure that each of us will smile and remember:

The very first day of our sophomore year, - the high school retreat, - the day at Marriott's, - the Santa Cruz trip, - the senior class trip to San Francisco, - the parties and casual get-togethers, - the "heavy sessions" (which the senior guys somehow managed to survive), - the Mr. Bill show featuring Mr. Rogers, - the agony of Mrs. Mitchell's excruciating term papers, - the senior ball, and — our last trip together as a class, the trip to Disneyland.

Though the times have passed, the memories are ours to treasure and reflect upon. We are a great class, and our pioneer spirit will always dwell within the walls of Lawrence Academy.

Lise Roberts, class president

Looking back on my school experiences, I realize that I won't be leaving them behind; their memories will be with me always. Goodbye.

Ross Thomson, student body president

There are places I remember all my life, though some have changed, — some forever, not for better. Some have gone, and some remain.

Kris Baumert
 "It's a hard thing to face the music,
 But it's something everybody's got to do.
 So I hope I can always remember
 All the crazy things I had to go through."

Seo Hwang Kim

Bill Lindsay
 "Some people think they're gonna die someday,—
 I got news; you never got to go."

Liz Orozco
 To the juniors and seniors,
 "Thanks for the memories."

Jenny Powell
 I won't forget anyone here.
 Don't forget remembrance is a form of meeting,— so I'll see you in my dreams.

Eric Shuster
 My friends at Lawrence will be remembered with a touch of love, a smile, and a tear, ... especially Anne.

Adam Starbird

 I'll meet you in the next.
 Don't be late."

This year's camp took place during the last week of school, and it stood out as a fitting end to an exciting year. We were blessed with lots of warm weather and long hours of sunlight. Recreation activities were a big part of the week for the students as they took advantage of the longer days and warm weather. Camp fires lasted until 10:30 in the evening, and many campers enjoyed both swimming and boating during the evening hours. As always, the food was delicious.

Highlights of the week included the cabin competition special Olympics, and the student skits on Thursday evening. All in all, it was a great week, with many lasting memories to talk about during the summer and the next school year.

Camp Campbell Memories November, 1979

Camp Campbell was held in November for the new seventh graders, in an effort to establish a sense of class spirit and unity which would carry over during the remaining months of the year. In late fall, the weather at camp can be wet, but fortunately the campers had a dry week, although the early morning temperatures were bone-chilling.

The highlight of this year's camp experience had to be the indoor campfire program on Thursday evening, which featured all of the winning cabin skits. Who can forget Michelle Guiterrez as "Miss Texas", or Mr. Roush as "Betty Ballerina"? Another highlight was the Friday morning mass which Father Kelly celebrated in the outdoor chapel.

PIONEERS IN SPORTS

The Thrill Of Victory
The Agony Of Defeat

SPARTAN FOOTBALL

The Spartan football team was 5 - 0 this year, giving them the 1979 S.P.C.A.L. championship. The team received excellent leadership from quarterback Pete Tanquary, and speed and defensive play from Bruce Miller. The high point of the season was provided by Jim Mastro, who scored four touchdowns in one game against St. Williams.

The girls' varsity volleyball team, led by all-stars Lisa Shuster and Tonya Wann, was coached by Cam Bimsford. The team had a respectable season in the Girls' Parochial Athletic League, making it all the way to the tournament held at the end of October.

CELTIC BASKETBALL

The Celtic girls' basketball team, a fledgling program now in its second year, played 15 games and won not one, but two! Although the girls sometimes appeared to have a happy-go-lucky attitude, they did not lack determination. They held their heads high, and improved game by game. Anne and Margaret Meegan were most persistent in their scoring drives. Martha Boyd centered for the team. Rose and Maria Martinez kept hoping their 20-footers would score, and Mary Foye, Terry Padilla, Sandi Jordan, and Caroline Phillips picked up the action. All agreed that our basketball season paid dividends not shown on the scoreboard.

Displaying the benefits of a year's experience, the Celtic boys' basketball team enjoyed a very successful season. Newcomers Roddy Ferrell, Tom Miller, Steve Lopuch, John Colonica, Tony Beach, John DeNeve, and Robert Gain provided a natural blend for returnees Eric Shuster, Alfredo Johnson, Brian Hunter, and Ross Thomson. The Celtics impressed all with their desire, hustle, and sportsmanship. Coach Matt Tanquary hopes to build a strong program using this year's freshmen and adding a few newcomers next year. The future of Celtic basketball looks bright for many years to come.

SPARTAN BASKETBALL

At the time of this writing, the Varsity A Basketball team had an overall record of 16 wins and 2 losses. In league play, the team finished second, with a record of 9 and 1. Outside of the league, the team won two eighth grade tournaments to date. Prospects looked good for continued success, since the team generated a sense of pride that should have carried them through the league playoff games.

Both girls' varsity teams got off to a good start in the 1980 season. The A1 team, coached by Tim Bruer, won their first three games. The A2 team, coached by Anne Meegan, lost their first two, but won their third by a wide margin. Both teams played a ten-game schedule in the Girls' Parochial Athletic League, which ended with the GVA tournament in the middle of March.
